

The Baily Thomas
Charitable Fund

Kingston
University
London

30TH NOV. 2018: 10AM-4PM TALKING ABOUT DYING SURVEY FEEDBACK CONFERENCE

What?

Last year, we invited learning disability services from all over the UK to take part in a survey exploring whether and how support staff talk about death and dying with the people they support. We received over 700 responses! We are thrilled to have the opportunity to share the findings with you, and also hope to hear your thoughts and views on our way forward.

When and Where?

Friday 30th November 2018, from 10am-4pm,
at St. George's University in Tooting, London SW17 0RE.

Who for?

All the participants of this study, the researchers, the collaborators, and all those who have an interest in the topic of talking about dying. This includes service providers, health and social care staff, support workers, families/carers, and people with learning disabilities themselves.

Register at:
tad@sgul.kingston.ac.uk

Registration will be completed and confirmed via email. Places will be allocated on a first-come-first-serve basis.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

You can expect a day of workshop
style events with opportunities for knowledge share.

We have invited
parents, people with learning disabilities,
and support staff to share their personal stories on talking about dying.